

SALZBURG OMI SEMINAR
Taste of Palliative Medicine
Sunday, October 31 – Saturday, November 6, 2021
Schloss Arenberg, Salzburg, Austria

Course Director: Frank D. Ferris, MD, FAAHPM, FAAC

SPEAKERS:

Ágnes Csikós, MD, PhD

Director

Institute of Primary Care

Department of Palliative Medicine

University of Pécs Medical School

Pécs

Hungary

Frank D. Ferris, MD, FAAHPM, FAAC

Associate Program Director

Hospice & Palliative Medicine Education

OhioHealth

Columbus, OH

USA

Carl Johan Fürst, MD, PhD

Senior Professor

Department of Palliative Care

Lund University

Lund

Sweden

Charles F. von Gunten, MD, PhD, FAAHPM, FAACE

Vice President Medical Affairs

Hospice & Palliative Medicine

OhioHealth

Columbus, OH

USA

Shannon Y. Moore, MD, MPH, FAAHPM

Palliative Medicine Consultant

Seattle, WA

USA

Alyssa Tilly, MD

*Assistant Professor
UNC School of Medicine
Chapel Hill, NC
USA*

TOPICS:

- S1, The Value of Early Palliative Care
- S2, Choosing Analgesics, Dosing Principles with Dosing Cases
- S3, Case Discussion: Pathophysiology & Management of Bone, Abdominal & Neuropathic Pain
- S4, Case Discussion: Opioid Conversions, Dyspnea
- S5, Communicating Effectively with Guest Patients
- S6, Case Discussion: Nausea & Vomiting, Constipation, Bowel Obstruction
- S7, Communicating Prognosis with Guest Patient and Role Plays
- S8, Case Discussion: Delirium Management
- S9, Difficult Decision-Making, Withholding & Withdrawing Antibiotics, Fluids & Nutrition with Guest Patient & Role Plays
- S10, Case Discussion: Loss, Compassion Fatigue, Burnout, Resilience
- S11, Case Discussion: Last Hours of Living